TYRONE C. WEBB , MURPHYSBORO, SENTENCED TO THE ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS FOR AGGRAVATED DOMESTIC BATTERY

Michael C. Carr, Jackson County State's Attorney, announced today that a Murphysboro man, Tyrone C. Webb, age 36, was sentenced to the Illinois Department of Corrections for Aggravated Domestic Battery, after being found guilty by a Jackson County Jury.

On May 9, 2016, deputies with the Jackson County Sheriff's Department received a walk-in report from Webb's girlfriend, who lived with him at the time of the incident. The victim reported that over the past three days, she had been repeatedly battered by Webb and was prohibited from leaving the residence. In addition to receiving punches and kicks to her head and about her body, Webb also cut the victim in her leg with a razor blade, resulting in the victim receiving medical treatment to close the wound. The victim was able to flee from the residence while Webb was sleeping.

On December 13, 2016, a Jackson County jury returned verdicts of guilty on Aggravated Domestic Battery, a Class 2 Felony; Aggravated Battery, a Class 3 Felony; and Domestic Battery, a Class A Misdemeanor.

On February 16, 2017, a Jackson County Judge sentenced the defendant to serve five (5) years in the Illinois Department of Corrections on the Aggravated Domestic Battery conviction, and the defendant must serve at least 85% of that sentence. He was also sentenced to serve one (1) year in jail on the Domestic Battery conviction. The sentences are to run concurrently. Upon Webb's release from prison, he will be placed on four (4) years of Mandatory Supervised Release.

The investigation was conducted by the Jackson County Sheriff's Department. Assistant State's Attorney Penny J. Pierson was responsible for the prosecution of this case.
